

Neck ruff being gold leafed over base of white enamel. (White gold reads yellow as photographed under incandescent light)

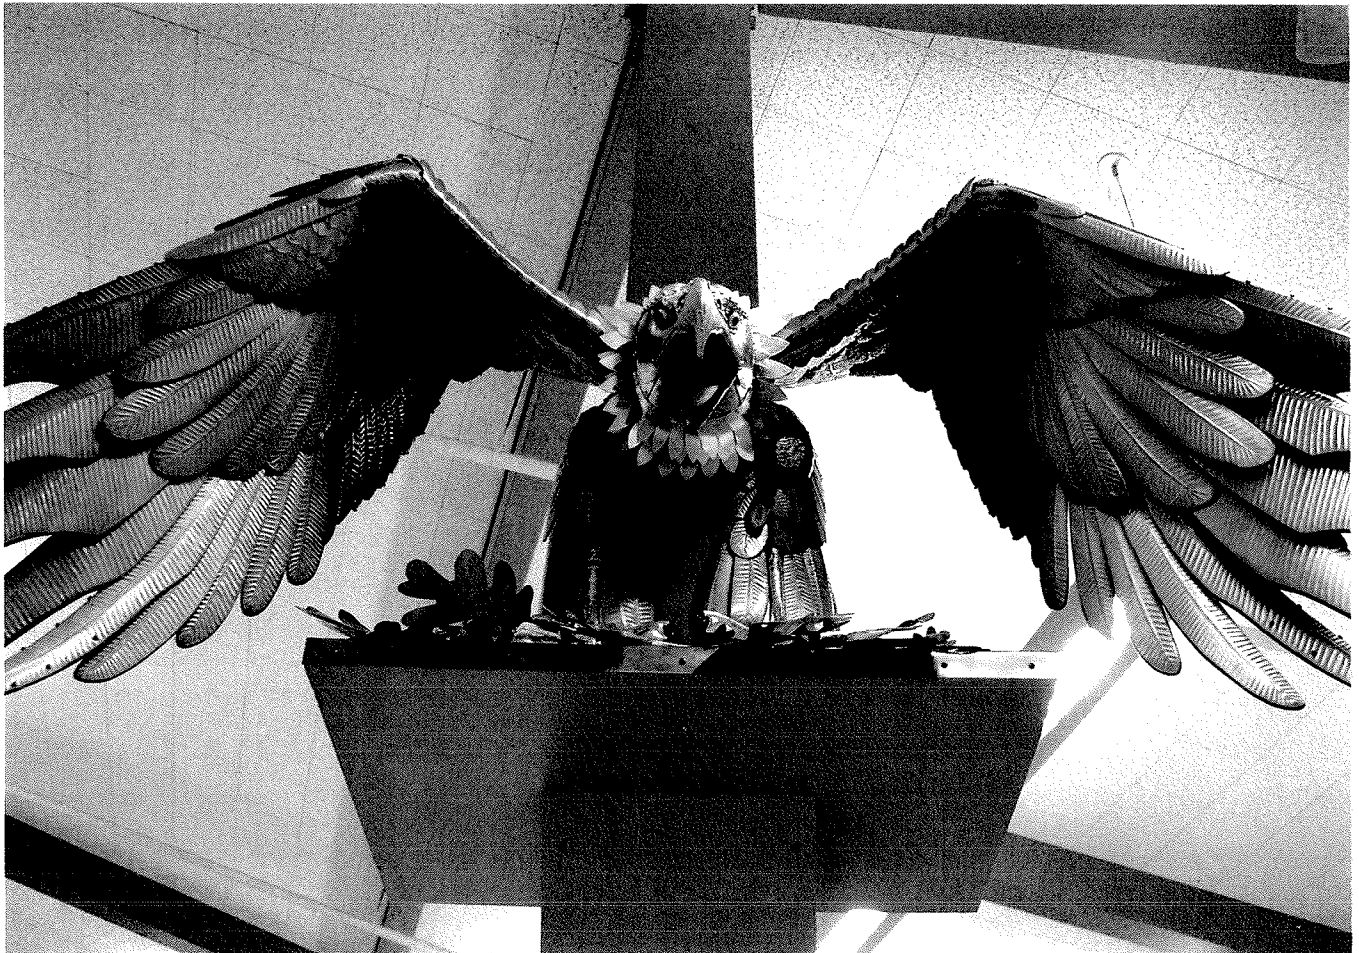

Head with nostrils and ruff and leading wing edges now complete

Side view, right wing in progress

Garry oak leaves being developed for base

"Eagle Spirit" installed in Washington High School library

From left front (plaque is at base bottom and concludes:
"The straightest line from my eye to my imagination is the flight of an eagle").

Right front quarter view, slope bottom is 8' 3" above floor